They know how to cure rheumatism in Pennsylvania! Mr. J. F. Meighan, a Pittssurg cigar dealer, awoke one mornin with an attack of rhoumatism in his right erm. Working around the store during he forenoon made it worse. By noon the min was so severe that he could not raise tis hand to his head and had to carry his irm in a sling. One of his customers, or carning the facts, went across the street to E. E. Heck's drug store, and at his own expense procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and persuaded the cigar dealer to try it. It eased the pain and reduced the swelling so that by the next morning he tould use his arm, and by the second morn ng was entirely well. This is only one of the many severe cases of rheumatism that have been cured by this valuable remedy. Fifty cent bottles for sale by Z. C. M. I. Orug Department.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., nakes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated or a month by her family physician, but row worse. He told her she was a hope-six vectim of consumption, and that no nodicine could cure her. Her druggist sugressed by King's New Discovery for Conamption; she benght a bottle, and to her discht, found bergelf benghted from pret amption; she bought a bottle, and to her ielight found herself benefited from arst-lose. She continued its use, and after tak-ting ten bottles found herself sound and rell, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial ottles of this Great Discovery at A. C. imith & Co.'s drug store. Large bottles be and $1.

The children's health must not be negreted. Colds in the head and snuffles bring a catarrh and lung affections. Ely's Cream Balm cures at once. It is perfectly safe and seasily applied into the nestrils. It also ures catarrh, the worst cases yielding to it. It is dangerous to tamper with irritating fluids and exciting snuffs. Use Ely's Yream Balm, which is safe and pleasant, and is easily applied. It cures the worst asses of catarrh, cold in the head and hay ever, giving relief from the first application. Price 50 cents.
